

Greek and Armenian peasants driving their flocks before them in the great stampede of refugees from Thrace, caused by the rumor that the Turks were to sack the country
Pacific & Atlantic.

Above: A charming photo of Lady Sheelah Florence Lisette, daughter of the Earl and Countess of Kingston, made at their thirteenth century house in Trowbridge.
Kadel & Herbert.

At right: The new welterweight boxing champion and conqueror of Jack Britton, "Mickey" Walker, unspoiled by his victory, at home with his father, mother and young brother.
Pacific & Atlantic.

He loses his chance for the Sultanate by the decree of the Turkish Nationalist Assembly— Crown Prince Abdul Medjid of Turkey and his little daughter at his residence in Scutari.
Our World.

American Ambassador Herrick in the field as a guest of President Millerand of France at a hunting party given to the diplomatic corps.
International.

Queen Victoria of Spain presenting to Lieut.-Col. Gonzalez Carrasco of the Moroccan army a flag subscribed for by the people of Seville.
Kadel & Herbert.

Little Miss Sonia Phipps, youngest member of the Henry Carnegie Phipps family, finds amusement on her father's chicken farm at Wantagh, L. I.
International.

Northwestern University has its sharpshooting sorority, and applicants must qualify with a high average in target practice. Photo shows a group of pretty coeds in training on the rifle range.
Pacific & Atlantic.